

Frequently Asked Questions

What is a rural jurisdiction?

- Rural jurisdictions are administrative areas used by BC Assessment to maintain properties in the rural areas, located outside of a municipality, under the Taxation (Rural Area) Act.